OTHER ACTIVITIES

1. has addressed an informal note to his contact at the inquiring into the whereabouts of some of the "names" in the Russian field during the next two months. If any of them are at the Library of Congress researching or have remained in the area we will explore the possibility of setting up a few seminars involving current developments in their particular areas of specialization.

2. OSI training officer, has indicated that the OSI Career Service Board has approved SIC's recommendations for a combined IOC-USSR area course with only a few minor suggestions for schedule changes. We will meet with and other OSI representatives next week to iron out details and set up a time schedule for the course.

3. You might be interested to hear that SRS, having gotten wind of the fact that Mr. Amory was scheduled to attend Introduction to Communism, requested us, "if possible", to make reference to the quality of SRS's contribution in the field from the lecture platform. This would seem to be an interesting commentary on the current status of SRS affairs.
